

Notes for Contributors

Submissions The editors welcome submissions of articles in the general fields of modern and early modern literature and culture – especially articles which indicate a clear familiarity with current critical and theoretical thinking. Submissions should generally be between 5,000 and 7,000 words in length, though exceptionally strong longer pieces will also be considered. Submissions should be sent to Carol Banks at the following address:

Critical Survey, University of Hertfordshire, Watford Campus, Aldenham, Watford, Herts WD2 8AT, UK.

Preparation of manuscripts Please send two copies of your submission. These copies should be word processed, double-spaced, using standard-sized paper. Detailed ‘Guidelines for Contributors’ are available from the editorial office at the above address. Any articles accepted for publication must be supplied in a version which fully complies with the journal’s house style and must be provided on disk.
