

Archives

The Centre very much appreciates the donation of Mrs Margaret M. Jeffrey of English translations by her late husband, Professor William Jeffrey, Jr, of works written by Durkheim and his group, especially Mauss and Fauconnet. Professor Jeffrey was professor of Law at the University of Cincinnati for many years. It was while he was studying law at the University of Chicago that he came under the influence of teachers in sociology. The manuscript translations include:

books

Fauconnet [1920] Responsibility: a sociological study.

articles

Durkheim & Mauss [1913a(i)(1)] 'Note on the Concept of Civilization'.

Fauconnet & Mauss [1901] 'Sociology'.

Mauss [1927] 'Sociology: its divisions and their proportions'.

The Centre and Durkheim Press are planning to arrange for the publication of several of these translations.

W. S. F. Pickering